

COMING THIS SUNDAY

A few years ago, I was invited to San Quentin to help teach a preaching class. Let that sentence sink in - a pastor was going to one of the most notorious prisons in America to teach men how to preach. Spending time with men who were physically locked up, but spiritually free in Christ and training them how to teach the word of God was an unforgettable experience. While there, I met a man who we'll call "Kevin." "Kevin" has been in prison longer than I have been alive. He made some horrible choices during his teens and will likely never be released. This Sunday, as we continue the Acts series, we'll see that the disciples have something in common with the prisoners at San Quentin - they love the Lord, but find themselves behind bars. Join us at 10:30 a.m. as we look at the rest of the story in Acts 12!
