

COASTLINE NEWS FOR THE WEEK OF APRIL 15 - APRIL 21

SUNDAY PREVIEW FROM PASTOR NEAL

This Sunday we're continuing our "This is Us" sermon series. For almost a century our church has prayed for Ventura. Saints who traveled before us prayed for their neighbors, friends, colleagues, and many others. Our church has a strong history of praying for the lost, the sick, and the broken.

But when we talk about prayer, how do we know how to pray? Join us this Sunday as our guest speaker Scott Grabendike talks about one of our core values: We pray bold prayers.

This weekend we are trying something new. As we've transitioned to two services we want to help you sit closer to your church family. We've roped off the back few pews to invite everyone to sit closer to the front. I understand this might impact your normal seat, but I also checked and there were no names on the pews. Think of what a great opportunity you have to meet someone new, sit next to a person you've never met, or even see the sermon from a new angle. Our team is excited about this minor adjustment that we think will enhance our worship service! We can't wait to see you this Sunday at 9:00am or 10:45am.

Miss a sermon?
