

Small Group Questions | The Year of the Lord's Favor

- In Isaiah 61:1–4, the Anointed One is sent to accomplish seven specific things. Which one encourages you the most today, and why?
- When you think about the frustrations, disappointments, or challenges in your life, how might they be revealing an opportunity to trust Jesus with your future in a deeper way?
- What area of your life feels stuck or beyond change right now? How might Jesus be inviting you to trust Him for transformation there?
- Isaiah 61:11 paints a picture of a flourishing garden. If you truly believed God has called you to bring life, hope, and restoration to the world through Jesus, what might change in the way you live today?