

In a culture of chronic anxiety, Jesus' words to his disciples about their fear and anxiety is a balm of healing, a deep revelation about truth, and a commission for the followers of the Jesus and His way in the world. Read John 14:1-14 and discuss the questions below.

1. What is your favorite room in in the house? Why? Can you remember a time when you got lost? What happened?
2. What problems are the disciples struggling with (see John 13:36; 14:6,8,22)?
3. Put Jesus' statement in John 14:6-7 in your own words. How does this statement of Jesus resonate in our culture today?
4. How does John 1:18 relate to what Jesus says in John 14:9? What evidence does Jesus give for his claims?
5. Do you think the promises Jesus makes in John 14:12-14 are "blank check" promises about prayer? In verse 12, does he mean the church will do works greater in power? Greater in scope? How could this be?
6. If Jesus is the Way, do you feel you are on a bumpy dead-end street, or on a four-lane highway? Why?
7. In light of John 14:6, how would you respond to someone who says, "there are many ways to God"?
8. Close your time in prayer. Pray for strength to live out an authentic commitment to Jesus' way and truth in your life.
